

FAMILY MEDICINE TRAINING AT MOI UNIVERSITY

James Akiruga Amisi, MUSOM

• Introduction

- Name of Department: Family Medicine, Community Health and Medical Education
- Inception: 2005
- Trained: 42 Family Physicians todate
- Number in training: 1
- Duration of Training: 4 years
- Faculty: 4; 2 specific for FM, 1 adjunct

• Curriculum

- Organized in 2 parts(I and II)
- SPICES Model (student centered, Problem based, Integrated, community based, electives and Systematic)
- 7 Objectives: 1. lifelong learner and others
- Specific courses that prepare learners to be resilient (Epidemiology (epidemics and pandemics), research , Management , leadership and Ethical practice

• Innovations:

- Education prescriptions
- Blended learning
- Collaborative sessions with Brown University (POCUS sessions, Joint Educational activities)
- BIGPIC and AMPATH Population health partnerships